

Pirate Treasure

Tom Creek's treasure is under the sea.
Many men try to get the treasure, but many men die.

'Our boat is ready. We are all good divers.
Let's find the treasure! Yes?' says John
West to his wife and friends. 'Yes! Arr! Ooohh!' they shout.

They are all ready to go – but are they afraid of Tom Creek's curse? (Word count 950)

PIRATE TREASURE

It is 1607. Tom Creek's pirate boat, The Black Star, goes down in the sea. Tom Creek loses all his treasure. As the boat goes down he shouts, 'This is my treasure and no other man's. I curse this treasure – forever.'

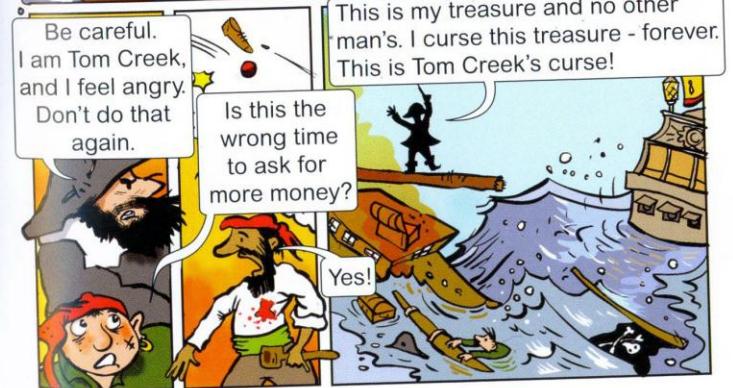

Many years pass. Many men try to get the treasure. Many men die.

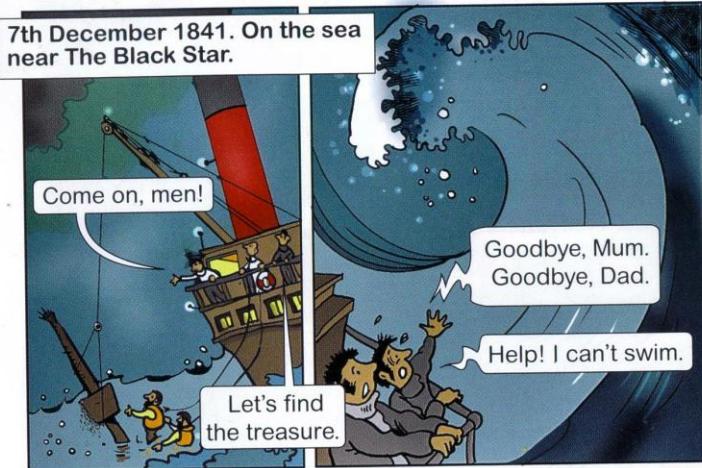

It is 2009. There is a new expedition to the Black Star. The boat is called The Sardine. John West, his wife Mae, and their friends want to get the treasure. They are not afraid of Tom Creek's curse. Some of them think there is no curse.

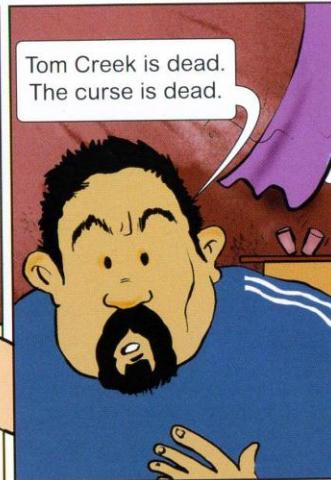

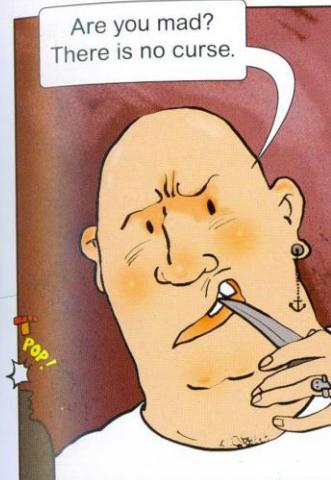

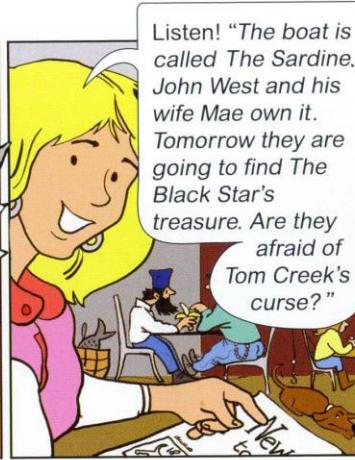

Are they right or are they mad?

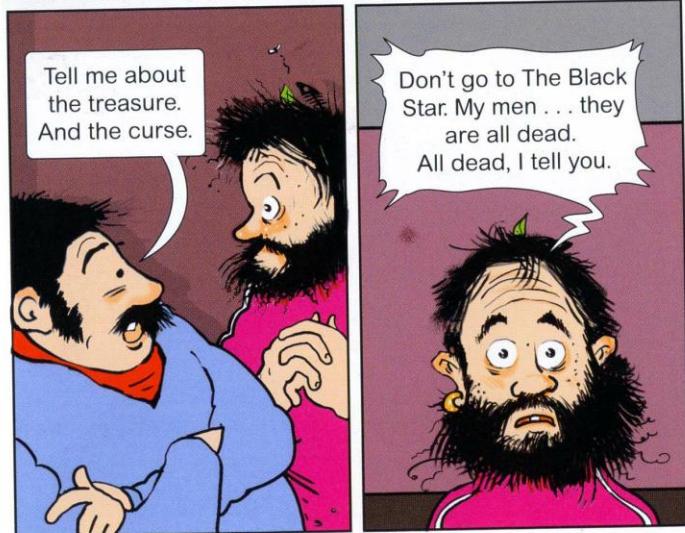

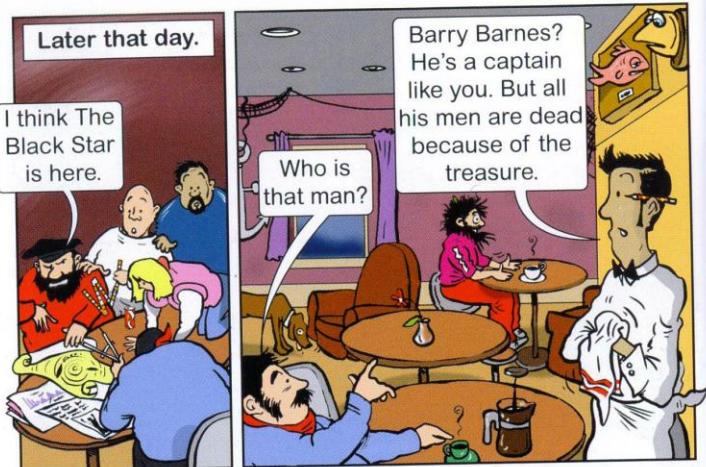

PIRATE TREASURE

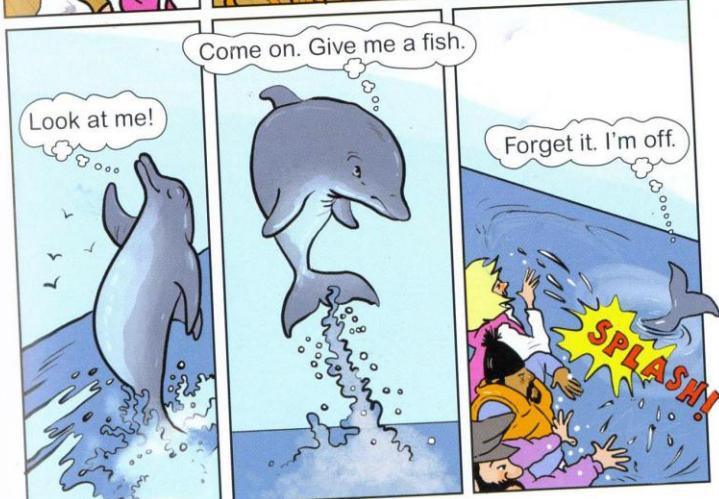

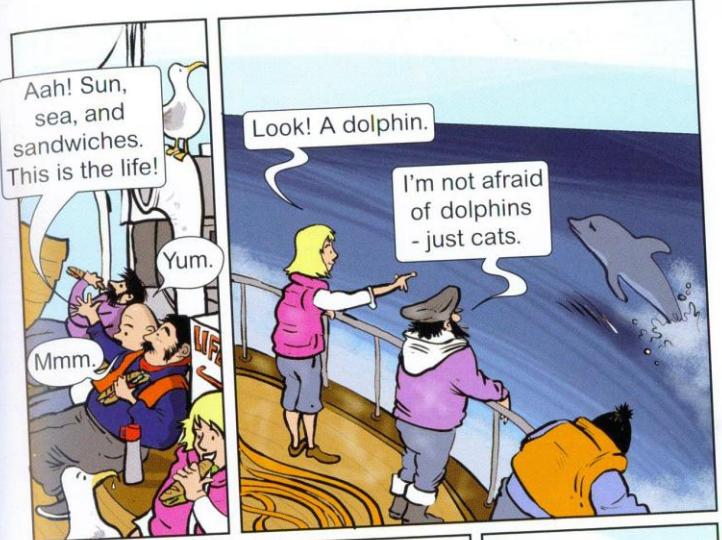

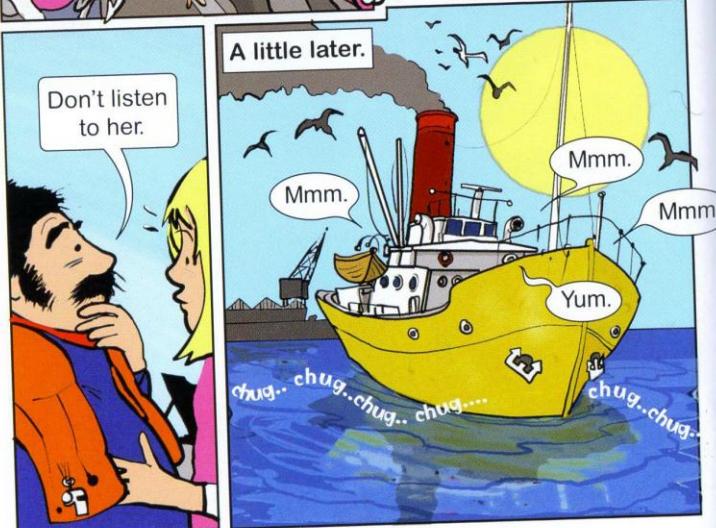

5th August 1607.

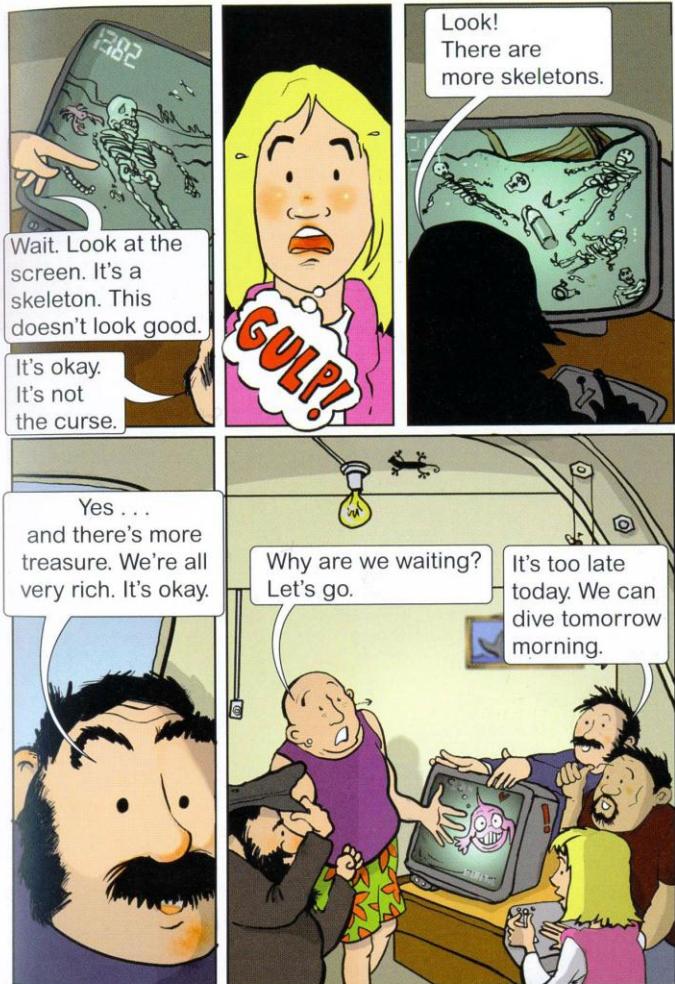

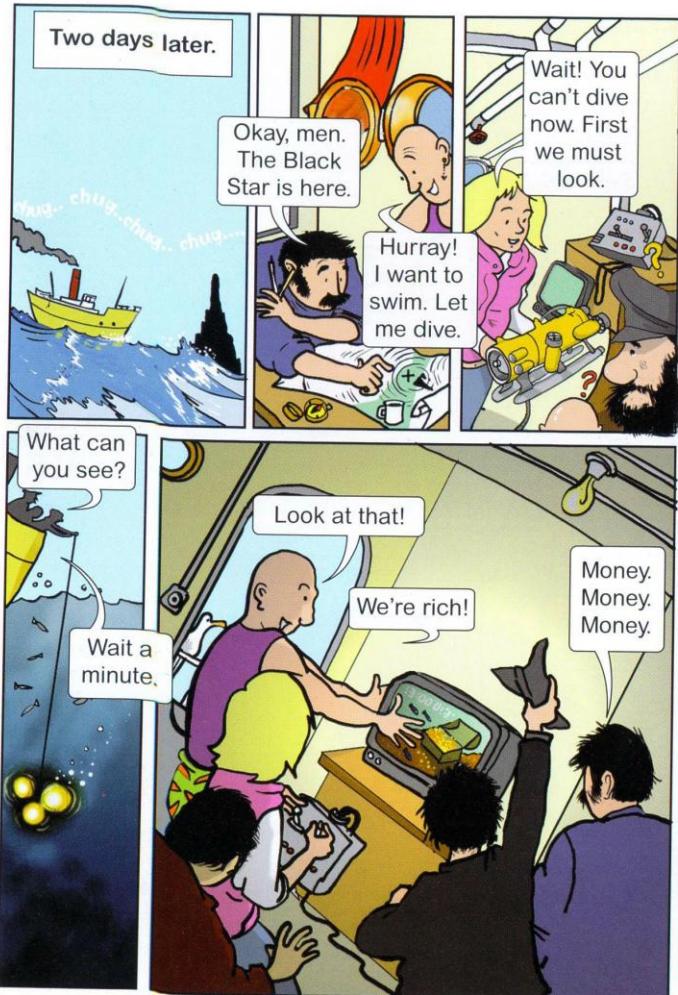

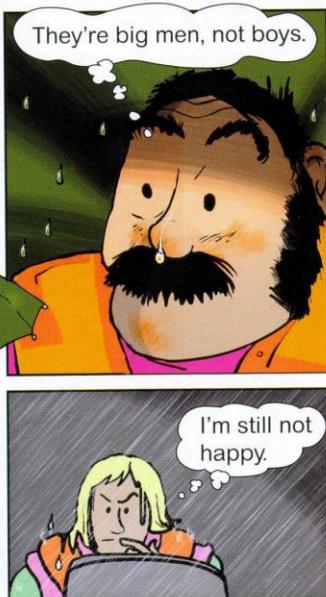

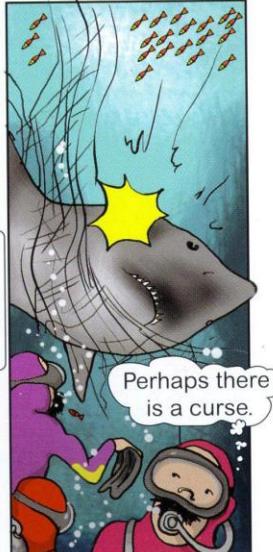

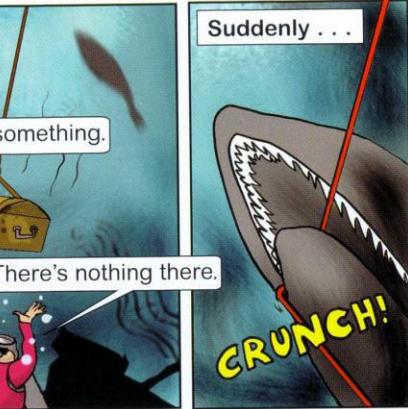

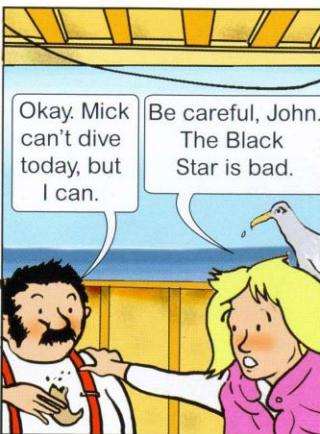

The next morning.

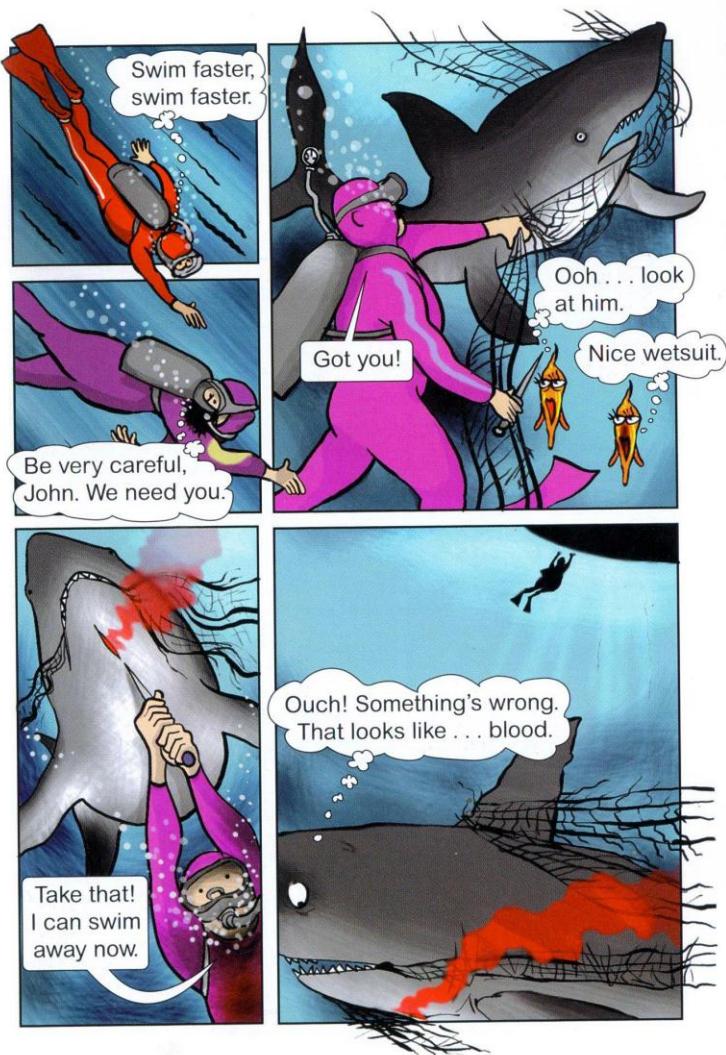

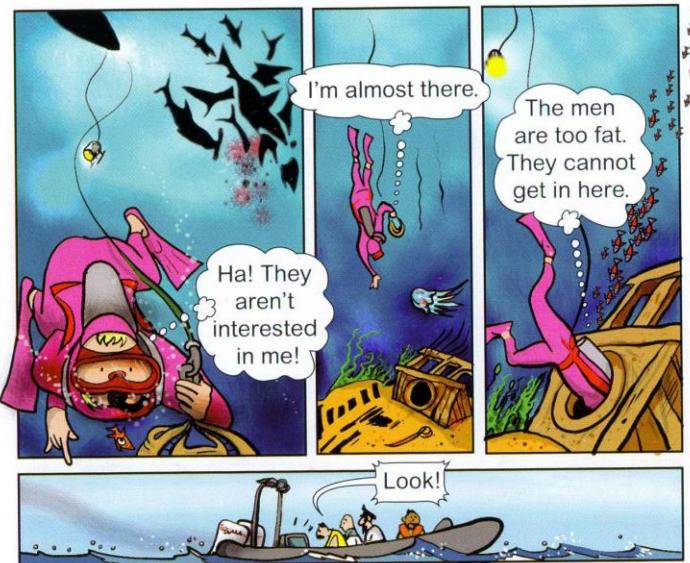

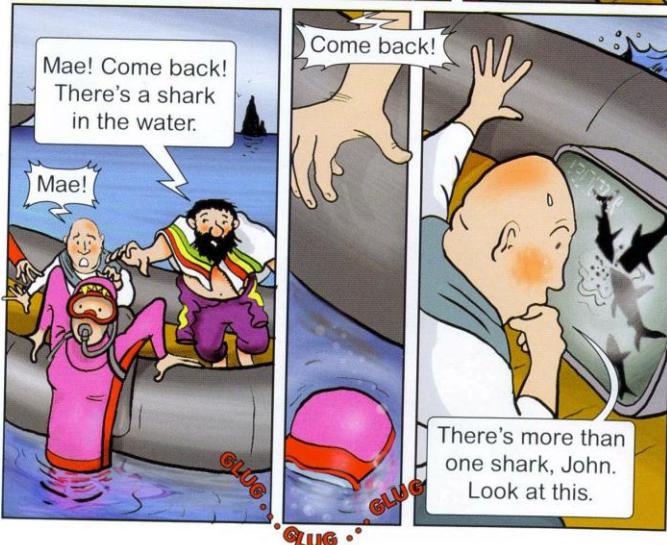

Suddenly it gets dark.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Mark Foster and Phillip Burrows have worked as a writer / illustrator team since 1991. They were born three years and many miles apart, but they are very nearly twins. They drive the same car, work on the same computers, and wear the same wellington boots - but not at the same time! They spend all the money they get from writing on gadgets, but please don't tell their wives. Mark and Phill have worked together on several Bookworms titles, including Taxi of Terror, Orca, and Last Chance (Starters). When they meet to write, they like to go to expensive hotels, eat chips dipped in coffee, and laugh at their own jokes.

OXFORD BOOKWORMS LIBRARY

*Classics • Crime & Mystery • Factfiles • Fantasy & Horror
 Human Interest • Playscripts • Thriller & Adventure
 True Stories • World Stories*

The OXFORD BOOKWORMS LIBRARY provides enjoyable reading in English, with a wide range of classic and modern fiction, non-fiction, and plays. It includes original and adapted texts in seven carefully graded language stages, which take learners from beginner to advanced level. An overview is given on the next pages.

All Stage 1 titles are available as audio recordings, as well as over eighty other titles from Starter to Stage 6. All Starters and many titles at Stages 1 to 4 are specially recommended for younger learners. Every Bookworm is illustrated, and Starters and Factfiles have full-colour illustrations.

The OXFORD BOOKWORMS LIBRARY also offers extensive support. Each book contains an introduction to the story, notes about the author, a glossary, and activities. Additional resources include tests and worksheets, and answers for these and for the activities in the books. There is advice on running a class library, using audio recordings, and the many ways of using Oxford Bookworms in reading programmes. Resource materials are available on the website <www.oup.com/bookworms>.

The Oxford Bookworms Collection is a series for advanced learners. It consists of volumes of short stories by well-known authors, both classic and modern. Texts are not abridged or adapted in any way, but carefully selected to be accessible to the advanced student.

You can find details and a full list of titles in the Oxford Bookworms Library Catalogue and Oxford English Language Teaching Catalogues, and on the website <www.oup.com/bookworms>.
